The Communion

All who are baptized in any Christian church and seek to follow Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour may receive the bread.

- † To receive the bread, hold out your hands, crossed with palms up.
- † The celebrant will place the bread in your hands.
- † If you require gluten-free wafers, please indicate at the time of receiving.
- † To receive the cup, guide it to your mouth using the base.
- † If you prefer not to drink from the cup, bow slightly in reverence.
- † If you prefer to receive a blessing, cross your arms over your chest.

Songs during communion: Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken (#388 CP)

Take My Life, and Let It Be (#435 CP)

O Worship the King (#380 CP)

ADVENT RESOURCES

"Beloved in Christ, in this season of Advent, let it be our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the Angels, and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, to see the Babe lying in a manger. Let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our disobedience unto the glorious Redemption brought us by his holy Child, and let us look forward to the yearly remembrance of his birth."

(From the Bidding Prayer of the Episcopal Advent Lessons & Carols service)

RESOURCES TO HELP YOU LOOK FORWARD

ONLINE:

- An excellent site with many suggestions for any household is the Anglican Compass. In addition to some basic information about what Advent is, you'll find suggestions for daily practices, Advent prayers/collects, and Advent music to listen to and even sing in your own home. (https://anglicancompass.com/advent-a-rookie-anglican-guide/)
- 2. Another wonderful resource, especially for those with younger families but not just for families comes through the Homely Hours: daily practices, rich resources, excellent printable Advent Wreath order of service, etc. (https://thehomelyhours.com/welcome-2/advent/)
- 3. The wonderful We Wonder website for those with young children... or adults who are game to experience wonder. They have a great collection of Advent "Stories". Their podcast (find on any platform) is great—look for 2021 episodes (which means the dates are slightly off). (https://www.wewonderpod.com)

BOOKS:

Our parish resource centre is a good place to browse for these and other options.

Steve Bell, Pilgrim Year Series: Advent [A thoughtful, engaging book providing background and insight on the first season of the church year]

Stephen Cherry, Barefoot Ways: Praying through Advent, Christmas and Epiphany [A collection of wonderful, short poem prayers and meditations for each day]

Jostein Gaarder, The Christmas Mystery [For those wanting a superb book to read together as a family or amongst friends from 1-24 December]

Malcolm Guite, Waiting on the Word: A poem a day for Advent, Christmas and Epiphany [A wide selection of poems/poets with a short meditation by Malcolm]

Tish Harrison Warren, Advent: The Season of Hope [A helpful reorientation to what is hopeful about Advent—audio book available on Hoopla (MJ library)]

Fleming Rutledge, Advent: The Once and Future Coming of Jesus Christ [A robust exploration of the paradoxes of Advent—available on Hoopla]

Madeleine L'Engle and Luci Shaw, WinterSong [Great companions to take a poetic journey through Advent with]

Ashley Tumlin Wallace, The Liturgical Home: Advent [A thoughtful way to integrate Advent into your household practices]

Jane Williams, The Art of Advent [A collection of reflections on art for this season by a wonderful theologian]

Brian Zahnd, The Anticipated Christ: A Journey Through Advent and Christmas [A highly recommended collection to help you slow down and wait when our secular world invites us to frenzy]

Music:

Before plunging into the avalanche of Christmas music, spend some time in the expectant music of Advent. A few suggestions:

Lowana Wallace [Porter – our friend!] – Hymns & Carols

Steve Bell – Feast of Seasons and Keening for the Dawn

Choir of Clare College, Cambridge - Veni Emmanuel: Music for Advent

Search your favourite music streaming platform for Advent playlists.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Welcome to this place of worship where we acknowledge that Jesus, the Lord of all, has called His Church to be a Church of all nations. With joy and in humility we gather on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Cree, Ojibwe, Saulteaux, Dakota, Lakota, Nakoda, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
