Bishop's Discretionary Dinner

On September 23, a gathering was held to support Bishop Helen's desire to be able to respond with loving support as the Spirit reveals needs to in our community, using the Bishop's Discretionary Fund. She shared her story, her heart for social justice work and her gratitude for the support of our Diocese. We thank the Lord for those who have donated and were able to attend the dinner. Your faithful giving to the Fund is noticed and so appreciated. Donations can still be made on our website by clicking "donate" or by e-transfer to finance.officer@sasktel.net or by cheque made out to the Diocese of Qu'Appelle [please indicate Bishop's Discretionary Fund]

Presentation to proud artist, Cory, at George Gordon Education Centre!

On September 26, Bishop Helen delivered some of our orange shirts to George Gordon Education Centre . The artwork of the winning grade 5 artist, Cory, is displayed on the back of the t-shirts. Well done, Cory!

September 30 was Orange Shirt Day and the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation.

As followers of Christ, we are called to Agape love. Agape love is sacrificial and calls us to action.

As you think about the meaning of this day, what loving action will you take going forward?

Share your thoughts with Kate at:

Recommended by Bishop Helen as a fun way to connect with Diocese of Lichfield :

Lichfield Diocesan Day of Prayer

Everyone across the diocese is invited to our next online Diocesan Day of Prayer which starts on Wednesday 19 October at 12noon with Morning Prayer led by Bishop Michael and finishes 24 hours later.

We hope to have a different deanery praying somewhere throughout the day. We'd love to hear from individuals, local groups or churches pledging to pray in person or in online groups in our virtual prayer room: Join Zoom Meeting ID: 846 1486 3883 Passcode: 356202.

Please share this in your parish, and encourage others to take part, not just for your deanery's slot but whenever you have opportunity throughout the day to support others in prayer. Contact Denise Keen for more details & to book a slot on the table. More information at Day of Prayer webpage

Creation Care in our Places of Prayer: Energy Retrofits and other Faith-based climate action

Kairos Regina is hosting a gathering to help you and your church community learn, share, and begin to plan a path forward to decarbonize your church. We will tackle the questions of why this question matters from a theological Christian perspective, what are others already doing about this, and what practical resources are out there to help us get started. We hope you will join us!

October 15th, 2022

Creation Care
in our Places of Prayer:
Energy Retrofits
and other Faith-based Climate Action

Saturday, Oct. 15, 9:30 am – 4:00 pm, lunch included

- Why does it matter for Christians to seek climate justice? How can our Places of Prayer reflect this reality? Dr. Chris Hrynkow, Professor of Ecological Ethics, Director of the Centre for Faith, Reason, Peace, and Justice, St. Thomas More College, Saskatoon.
- “Deep retrofits” and how they can zero the emissions from different styles of church buildings. Matt Dipple, P. Eng., Engineer and Building Consultant
- Panel: Local communities share experiences with getting started, auditing and planning, cutting energy use, and adding solar panels.
- Resource round-up: Be inspired by successful projects near and far; discover grants and publications from faith groups and governments; and meet the organizations ready to help.
- Next steps: Listening for the Spirit and finding the way for our faith communities to lead towards climate justice.
